In Memoriam is a piece for flute and guitar specially written for Eric Singh and Leanna Ginsburg. To the memory of BH.
approx duration: 7 minutes

Non Standard Notation

GUITAR

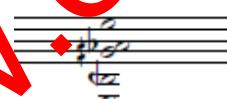

The X head will be performed as a hit in the sound board with the fingertips. In this case indicates a tremolo between the ring finger and the thumb. In the case of the crossed circle (as the last note in the example), it will be performed as a hit with the thumb on the saddle or the bridge.

The damped symbol will be performed as a tambora in the strings with the thumb. In the case of the example, this tambura will be alternated in as a tremolo with with a hit on the soundboard with the ring finger.

Repeat the notes on the box in any order, going from medium fast to fast, changing the dynamic as indicated. Let it resonate as much as possible

The tuning of the guitar, in terms of hertz, goes as following: 6=normal; 5=119.96; 4=normal; 3=201.74; 2=207.65; 1=normal.

The performance should be always very resonant. Never cut any sound, and let it ring as much as possible

FLUTE

Musical notation example 1: A square head note on a staff followed by dynamic markings f and ppp.

Square head will be performed as only air sound. It could be performed with a frullato if indicated.

Musical notation example 2: A diamond head note on a staff.

The diamond head should be performed as half air + half real pitch.

Musical notation example 3: Tremolo of harmonics. The bottom notes indicate the fundamental. Dynamic markings include ppp, m, and ppp.

Tremolo of harmonics. The bottom notes indicate the fundamental.

Musical notation example 4: The up bow indicates inhaling and the down bow indicates exhaling.

The up bow indicates inhaling and the down bow indicates exhaling.

All the microtonal accidents must be performed as a $\frac{1}{4}$ tone.
